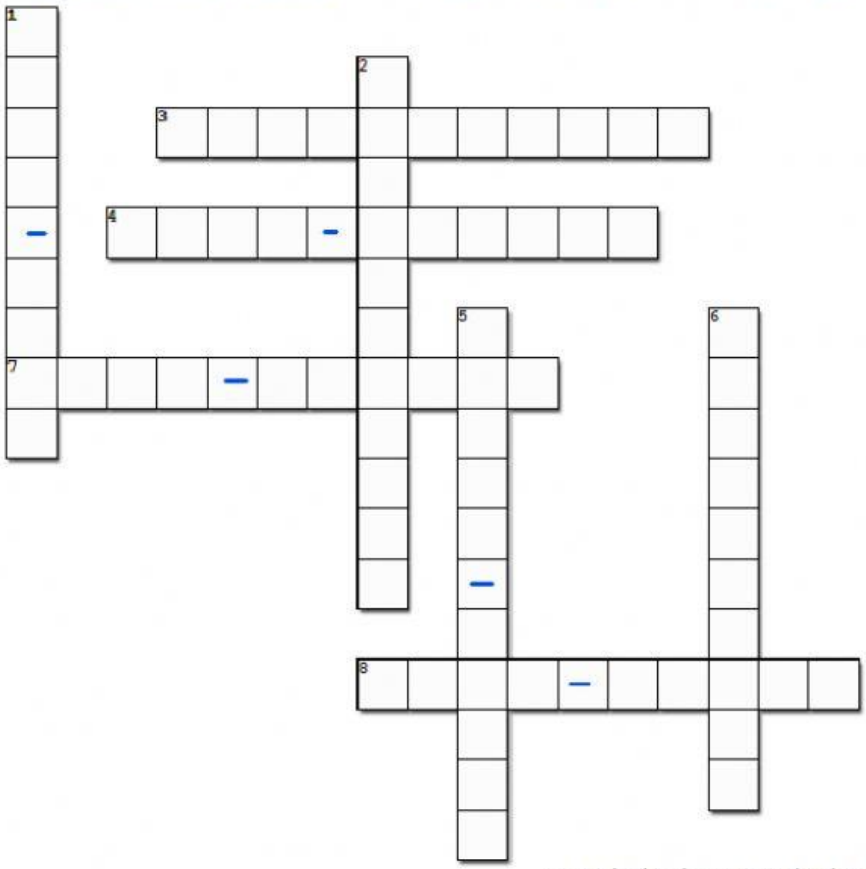
BOOKS

VOCABULARY: Use the clues to complete the crossword puzzle



Created using the Crossword Maker on TheTeachersCorne

Across

3. This person is the principal character in the book
4. Once we start reading the book, we just can't stop reading until we finish it
7. Mary enjoys reading books and reads lots of them a year
8. A sudden and unexpected change in the logical sequence of a story.

Down

1. This book is not difficult to understand
2. An extremely interesting book
5. This book is difficult to read and process
6. This person is mean and tries to hurt the main character

LIVEWORKSHEETS

BOOKS

GRAMMAR: complete the sentences with when, who, which, where or whose

1. I love books _____ are plagued with plot twists.
2. I enjoyed the moment _____ the antagonist and protagonist finally made peace.
3. We reached a point _____ we just couldn't stop reading the book
4. She likes authors _____ books are based on real stories.
5. This is the person _____ wrote this book.
6. This book was set in a period _____ there was not gender equality.
7. Is this book addressed to readers _____ are over 18 years old?
8. This politician, _____ life inspired the author, was not keen on the idea.

VIDEO: Number the benefits of Reading the video mentions in the order they are discussed

You can sleep better

It will be easier to remember things

You can grow and develop as a person

You can become more open minded

You can become smarter by reading books

You can get mentorship from the author

You can get inner peace

You will be able to make better decisions

You can improve your speaking skills

You can concentrate better at work

LIVEWORKSHEETS