READING

Tourism is an important part of the global economy and eco-tourism has grown (1) _____ than any other sector in the industry recently. Eco-tourism aims to be the most sustainable, environmentally friendly kind of tourism possible. The term 'eco-tourism' has been used (2) _____ 1983 to refer to vacations that are spent in natural environments without disturbing or damaging natural habitats. Profits from this type of tourism generally help support the local economy and (3) _____ projects. Quite often, eco-tourism is done in remote parts of our planet which not many tourists have ever seen before. Therefore, it is also a great way to experience new cultures and original lifestyles. Unfortunately, (4) _____ eco-tourism tries its best to keep the adverse impact on our environment to a minimum, chances are that the local wildlife will still be disturbed to a certain extent. Let's look at Kenya, where trips on safari are usually in the morning. This is also the time when lions go hunting. However, the eco-tourists (5) _____ many other animals away, meaning that lions in the area have to hunt in the hot, tiring hours of the day. Clearly, it's better to shoot pictures of animals than to shoot guns at them, but whether you are eco-tourists or not, the animals would probably just prefer to be left alone.
