

A. Match the event and the consequence.

Example how to answer : It's raining tomorrow. You have to bring an umbrella.

No	Event	Consequence
1	It's raining tomorrow	a. You feel hungry a lot
2	You move to a foreign country	b. You have to learn a new foreign language
3	You get a bonus	c. You buy a friend a gift
4	You lost your mobile phone	d. You can't call and text friends
5	You're accepted in ITB	e. You have to bring an umbrella
6	You go on a diet	f. You'll feel very happy and proud

B. Complete the sentences with because/ because of that by using the expressions in the box.

- I can't print out the assignments
- She couldn't complete the work ...
- I can't meet you ...
- We couldn't get to his house ...
- The boat couldn't put to sea ...

I have another appointment	flooding on the road	her illness
My computer isn't working	the strong wind

C. Complete the sentences in column A with a clause in column B

Column A	Column B
1. I prefer a small car because ...	a. she didn't invite me
2. I was late to school because ...	b. she didn't pick up her phone
3. I left a message in Kadita's voice mail because .	c. he has got his master degree in marketing
4. Since our favorite bistro didn't open ...	d. it consumes less petrol
5. I will not come to her wedding party since ...	e. I usually put on batik
6. Jagat believes that he'd find a high paying job since ...	f. I was trapped in a severe traffic jam
7. Since each student in my school wears a traditional attire on Wednesday ...	g. people feel stifling
8. We had to buy some candles last night because ...	h. we went to nearby café
9. Now that it's rainy season	i. it was a blackout
10. Because the temperature rises to above 36 C..	j. flood is everywhere

