3. OUR SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT

Read the information and study the diagram below, then answer question (a). Use your background knowledge about our system of government in The Bahamas to answer questions (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f)

Most democratic countries have two main political parties. In The Bahamas, the first formal political party to be formed was the Progressive Liberal Party. Other political parties in the country are the United Bahamian Party and The Free National Movement. During later years other political parties were formed. Individuals not willing to become a part of any political party could present themselves as an independent candidate and run for a seat in parliament during the country's general elections.
