

Working with Animals

Listen and decide if the following statements are true or false.

True False

Working with animals is not always safe.

Some aspects of the work may make you feel sad.

A pleasant thing about working with animals is that it is very quiet.

Based on the listening find a synonym and an antonym for:

synonym

antonym

SAFE

SAD

QUIET

Listen to a radio programme about animals and decide if the following statements are true or false.

True False

The speaker describes dolphins as smart but aggressive.

The speaker gives examples of animals used in wars.

Some animals have been honoured for their bravery.

The speaker gives examples of animals used for amusement of humans.

Horses do more kinds of work than any other animal.

Training guide dogs helps difficult teenagers become more friendly and confident.

What is the connection between vegetarianism and protecting the environment? Listen and choose the right option.

Alice says Tim

- a) never discusses environmental problems.
- b) does little to protect the environment.
- c) has no respect animal rights.

Alice says most people

- a) Don't want to become vegetarians.
- b) Don't want to sort their rubbish.
- c) Do nothing to protect the environment.

Tim protests that he

- a) does not use his car very often.
- b) always uses public transport.
- c) cycles instead of driving.

Alice says most farmland is used

- a) to grow cereals
- b) to grow crops for the industry.
- c) to grow food for animals.

Alice says the Amazonian rainforests are being cut down

- a) to produce paper.
- b) to obtain exotic types of wood for furniture.
- c) to make room for animal production.

Tim says that vegetarian diet

- a) will not save the planet.
- b) is unhealthy.
- c) is not good for men.

