

Week 15
Primary 3/4

The Write Tribe

Recap + Language drills

Beginner Exercise 4

apologised	responded	called
threatened	grunted

1. "I'm sorry. I promise to never do it again!" _____ the guilty student.
2. "Help me!" _____ out the drowning boy.
3. "If you don't give me your money, I will beat you black and blue!" _____ the bully.
4. "Yes! I am up here!" _____ Jack to his friend's call.
5. "Too tired," the father _____ and switched on the television, ignoring the pleas from the children to bring them to the toy store.

Beginner Exercise 1

departed	leaped	arrived
dash	strolled

1. It was a bright and breezy day. We _____ around in the park, admiring all the beautiful shrubs and trees.
2. The vigilant security guard made a quick _____ and saved the boy from the busy road in the nick of time.
3. With a heavy heart, we _____ from the beautiful village. We bid tearful goodbyes to all the friends we made.
4. After an arduous long journey, we finally _____ at the hotel. Immediately, we jumped onto the plush beds and fell into a deep sleep.
5. She _____ like a frog to the finish line and won first prize in the sack race.

Beginner Exercise 2

raced	marched	limp
stomped	tiptoed

1. The children _____ one another in the running competition.
2. Joe _____ into the kitchen as quiet as a mouse so he could steal a cookie from the cookie jar.
3. Jane _____ her feet angrily when she heard her mother was not going to buy her a toy.
4. The soldiers _____ in a straight line.
5. After breaking her leg, Joanne walks with a _____.

Beginner Exercise 3

flee	hopped	flitted
hobbled	chased

1. Frightened as a mouse, everyone started to _____ when they heard a lion's roar.
2. The beautiful butterflies _____ around the garden.
3. The little bunny _____ to its hutch.
4. The policeman _____ the pickpocket.
5. The old man _____ slowly using a walking stick.

Beginner Exercise 4

slithered	wriggled	galloped
swung	fluttered

1. The worm _____ away as fast as lightning before it could be eaten by the hungry hawk.
2. She _____ about happily like a horse when she heard she did not have to do any homework that night!
3. The beautiful butterflies _____ their magnificent wings and flew from flower to flower.
4. My brother _____ like a snake and hid under the table so that he could give a fright to my mother.
5. We _____ on the swings in the playground to our heart's content.

