

Defining Relative Clauses: which, who, that, where

CHOOSE THE CORRECT RELATIVE PRONOUN:

1. She has a friend can speak Japanese.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

6. We can go to the restaurant my sister works.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

2. That's the shop I bought that beautiful dress.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

7. The woman works here is my cousin.

- a) that
- b) which
- c) where

3. That's the film everyone is talking about.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

8. The computer she bought is very expensive.

- a) who
- b) that
- c) where

4. The people live in this village are very friendly.

- a) that
- b) which
- c) where

9. He wrote to a friend lives in the USA.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

5. The book I read last week was interesting.

- a) who
- b) that
- c) where

10. This is the house I lived many years ago.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

11. She called a doctor lived nearby.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

12. This is a shop I always buy pizza.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

13. A pizza your mother baked is very tasty.

- a) who
- b) that
- c) where

14. We can go to the beach we went last week.

- a) that
- b) which
- c) where

15. The book I bought was very fascinating.

- a) who
- b) that
- c) where

16. Kate bought a car is 25 years.

- a) that
- b) who
- c) where

17. The music she is listening too is very cool.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

18. This is my friend works in Google.

- a) who
- b) which
- c) where

19. She bought the book everyone is talking about.

- a) that
- b) who
- c) where

20. Let's go to the bookstore we went yesterday.

- a) that
- b) which
- c) where