

Going fishing

Wednesday Ten o'clock.

I am on holiday on Sea Island. The sun is shining and it is hot.

My friend Lesley is here with her father. They have a small boat. We are going fishing.

Sea Island.

Five o'clock in the afternoon.

There are big, black clouds in the sky and it is raining. The wind is pushing us out to sea...

Eight o'clock.

It is not raining now. It is night and the moon is in the sky. The wind is pushing the boat out, out, out to sea. We have no supper and we are very hungry. We have some coffee, but we are cold and unhappy.

Eleven o'clock.

Lesley is sleeping now. There is a ship out there, but we have no lamp.

Thursday morning.

It is seven o'clock in the morning. The sun is shining again. There is a small island and there are men and women near the boats. Lesley is waving her handkerchief and her father is shouting...

Half past seven.

Two of the boats are coming out from the island! We are OK!

Friday.

We are with Lesley's mother on Sea Island again. She is very happy to see us.
