

Match by dragging and dropping

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to create a fillable electronic form for online use.

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to select the most appropriate network to be used for a given context.

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to differentiate between validation and verification of data

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to use the mail merge feature in the preparation of a document.

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to describe a Local Area Network in her/his own words

By the end of this lesson, the student will be able to list the major steps in problem-solving

Analyze

Remember

Understand

Create

Apply

Evaluate