

PEMANTAPAN DAN PERSIAPAN
ASESMEN STANDARDISASI PENDIDIKAN DAERAH
MKKS SMP/MTs DIY
TAHUN PELAJARAN 2022/2023

Mata Pelajaran : Bahasa Inggris
Kelas : IX (Sembilan)
Hari dan Tanggal : Kamis, 16 Maret 2023
Waktu : 120 Menit

PAKET 1

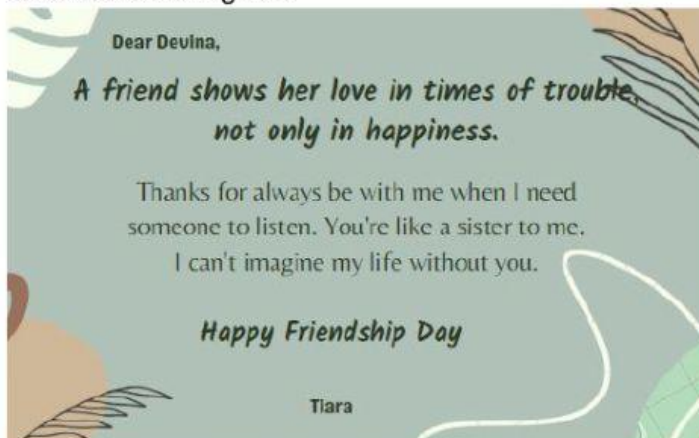

PETUNJUK UMUM

1. Isikan identitas Anda dengan benar!
2. Tersedia waktu 120 menit untuk mengerjakan paket tes tersebut.
3. Jumlah soal sebanyak 50 butir, pada setiap butir soal terdapat 4 (empat) pilihan jawaban.
4. Periksa dan bacalah soal-soal sebelum Anda menjawabnya dengan cermat!
5. Periksa pekerjaan Anda sebelum dikirim / submit!
6. Berdoalah sebelum mengerjakan!

PETUNJUK KHUSUS

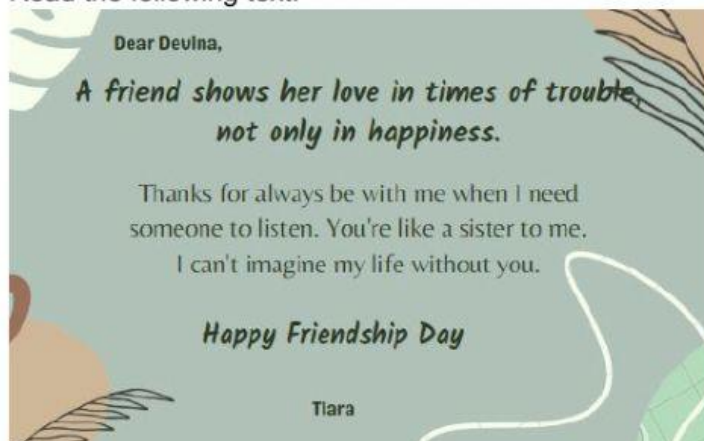

Pilihlah salah satu jawaban di bawah ini yang paling benar!

Read the following text.

1. From the text we know that Devia is Tiara's
 - A. sister
 - B. friend
 - C. cousin
 - D. sibling

Read the following text.

2. "A friend shows her love in times of trouble, not only in happiness."
It means that
- A. a true friend will care when there are problems
 - B. a close friend will ask other's help when in needs
 - C. a sincere friend must tell others about her problems
 - D. a real friend should care only about other's happiness

Read the following text.

Malala Yousafzai

Malala Yousafzai is an international symbol of bravery and determination. She fights for women's rights. Malala has faced significant danger and opposition from the Taliban. They strongly disagree with her beliefs. Even so, she remained firm in her stance.

Malala is the youngest Nobel Peace awardee. She continues to raises awareness about the importance of women education. She also leads the Malala Fund. This organization works to empower girls through education. It also advocates for their rights globally.

Malala also writes a number of books. One of them is her autobiography. It details her experiences as an activist. She is currently pursuing her studies at Oxford University.

Malala continues to be a powerful voice. She consistently speaks up about education and women's rights. She wants to make a positive impact on the world and remains fearless in her efforts.

3. What is the writer's intention of writing the text?
- A. To retell the history of World Malala Day.
 - B. To tell about a school founder from Pakistan.
 - C. To explain the reason Malala got a Nobel Prize.
 - D. To introduce the youngest Nobel Peace awardee.

Read the following text.

Malala Yousafzai

Malala Yousafzai is an international symbol of bravery and determination. She fights for women's rights. Malala has faced significant danger and opposition from the Taliban. They strongly disagree with her beliefs. Even so, she remained firm in her stance.

Malala is the youngest Nobel Peace awardee. She continues to raises awareness about the importance of women education. She also leads the Malala Fund. This organization works to empower girls through education. It also advocates for their rights globally.

Malala also writes a number of books. One of them is her autobiography. It details her experiences as an activist. She is currently pursuing her studies at Oxford University.

Malala continues to be a powerful voice. She consistently speaks up about education and women's rights. She wants to make a positive impact on the world and remains fearless in her efforts.

4. From the text we may know that Malala is a ... girl.
- A. respectful
 - B. obedient
 - C. tough
 - D. brave

Read the following text.

Malala Yousafzai

Malala Yousafzai is an international symbol of bravery and determination. She fights for women's rights. Malala has faced significant danger and opposition from the Taliban. They strongly disagree with her beliefs. Even so, she remained firm in her stance.

Malala is the youngest Nobel Peace awardee. She continues to raise awareness about the importance of women education. She also leads the Malala Fund. This organization works to empower girls through education. It also advocates for their rights globally.

Malala also writes a number of books. One of them is her autobiography. It details her experiences as an activist. She is currently pursuing her studies at Oxford University.

Malala continues to be a powerful voice. She consistently speaks up about education and women's rights. She wants to make a positive impact on the world and remains fearless in her efforts.

5. Malala continues to be a powerful voice because she
- A. wants to influence people with her movement
 - B. leads an organization that empowers girls
 - C. is the youngest Nobel Peace awardee
 - D. has a dream to be a heroine

Read the following text.

I was always eager to try new things and have fun. I loved exploring the world around me and experiencing all that life had to offer. However, I often found myself getting carried away and forgot my goals and responsibilities.

One day, my parents decided to enroll me in a karate class to help me develop self-control and focus. At first, I was resistant to the idea. I didn't want to go to the class. But my parents persuaded me to give it a try. In the end, I had to agree.

As I began attending the karate class, I quickly realized that it was much harder than I had anticipated. The lessons were challenging. Besides, the other students were all more experienced and skilled than I was. I was often frustrated and wanted to give up. However, I remembered the importance of self-control.

Over time, I grew to love karate. I also enjoyed the sense of achievement it gave me. I learned to control my emotions and focus on my goals. Surely, my discipline and dedication paid off. I became one of the top students in my class and even earned my black belt.

Through my experience in karate, I learned the value of self-control and how it can help me achieve my goals and solve problems. I continued to practice karate and other disciplines throughout my life, and I always looked back on my time in the karate class as a life-changing moment in my journey toward self-improvement.

6. What is the topic of the story?
- A. The importance of Karate.
 - B. The life changing moment.
 - C. The benefits of achievements.
 - D. The journey toward self-improvement.

Read the following text.

I was always eager to try new things and have fun. I loved exploring the world around me and experiencing all that life had to offer. However, I often found myself getting carried away and forgot my goals and responsibilities.

One day, my parents decided to enroll me in a karate class to help me develop self-control and focus. At first, I was resistant to the idea. I didn't want to go to the class. But my parents persuaded me to give it a try. In the end, I had to agree.

As I began attending the karate class, I quickly realized that it was much harder than I had anticipated. The lessons were challenging. Besides, the other students were all more experienced and skilled than I was. I was often frustrated and wanted to give up. However, I remembered the importance of self-control.

Over time, I grew to love karate. I also enjoyed the sense of achievement it gave me. I learned to control my emotions and focus on my goals. Surely, my discipline and dedication paid off. I became one of the top students in my class and even earned my black belt.

Through my experience in karate, I learned the value of self-control and how it can help me achieve my goals and solve problems. I continued to practice karate and other disciplines throughout my life, and I always looked back on my time in the karate class as a life-changing moment in my journey toward self-improvement.

7. What did Mia's parents do to help her develop self-discipline and focus?

- A. They enrolled her in a karate class.
- B. They convinced her to try new things.
- C. They encouraged her to go on a journey.
- D. They taught her the need of improve herself.

Read the following text.

I was always eager to try new things and have fun. I loved exploring the world around me and experiencing all that life had to offer. However, I often found myself getting carried away and forgot my goals and responsibilities.

One day, my parents decided to enroll me in a karate class to help me develop self-control and focus. At first, I was resistant to the idea. I didn't want to go to the class. But my parents persuaded me to give it a try. In the end, I had to agree.

As I began attending the karate class, I quickly realized that it was much harder than I had anticipated. The lessons were challenging. Besides, the other students were all more experienced and skilled than I was. I was often frustrated and wanted to give up. However, I remembered the importance of self-control.

Over time, I grew to love karate. I also enjoyed the sense of achievement it gave me. I learned to control my emotions and focus on my goals. Surely, my discipline and dedication paid off. I became one of the top students in my class and even earned my black belt.

Through my experience in karate, I learned the value of self-control and how it can help me achieve my goals and solve problems. I continued to practice karate and other disciplines throughout my life, and I always looked back on my time in the karate class as a life-changing moment in my journey toward self-improvement.

8. "At first, I was resistant to the idea."

Which of the following is a synonym for the word "resistant to" in the text?

- A. Committed to.
- B. Frustrated to.
- C. Opposite.
- D. Against.

Read the following text.

Sahlab

Sahlab is a unique beverage from Egypt.

Ingredients:

3 tbsp corn-starch
100ml water
400ml milk
1 tsp vanilla extract
1 tsp granulated sugar
Cinnamon powder
Pistachio nuts
Grated coconut

Steps

1. Mix the corn-starch and water then stir until smooth. Add vanilla and sugar.
2. Add the milk into the mixture and stir thoroughly.
3. Heat the corn-starch and milk mixture over medium heat for about 2 minutes. Stir the mixture until thickened.
4. Pour the mixture into a serving glass.
5. Sprinkle the cinnamon, grated coconut, and pistachio nuts on top.
6. Sahlab is ready to serve.

9. What does the text tell us about?
- A. A recipe for making Sahlab.
 - B. A procedure on how to serve Sahlab.
 - C. A guidance on creating an herbal drink.
 - D. A series of instructions to produce Sahlab.

Read the following text.

Sahlab

Sahlab is a unique beverage from Egypt.

Ingredients:

3 tbsp corn-starch
100ml water
400ml milk
1 tsp vanilla extract
1 tsp granulated sugar
Cinnamon powder
Pistachio nuts
Grated coconut

Steps

1. Mix the corn-starch and water then stir until smooth. Add vanilla and sugar.
2. Add the milk into the mixture and stir thoroughly.
3. Heat the corn-starch and milk mixture over medium heat for about 2 minutes. Stir the mixture until thickened.
4. Pour the mixture into a serving glass.
5. Sprinkle the cinnamon, grated coconut, and pistachio nuts on top.
6. Sahlab is ready to serve.

10. In step 2, what will likely happen if we do not stir the mixture thoroughly?
- A. The mixture will not be done.
 - B. The beverage will be yummier.
 - C. There will be some lumps of milk.
 - D. There will be some corn-starch on top.