

Name: _____

Reading Comprehension

Cause and Effect

DIRECTIONS: Read the cause and then write an effect. Then write a complete sentence that includes both the cause and the effect. Follow the example.

Cause: It rained all day.

Effect: All the low-lying streets flooded.

Sentence: It rained all day, and all the low-lying streets flooded.

1. Cause: Phoebe didn't do her homework.

Effect:

Sentence:

2. Cause: Jan put her hand on the hot stove.

Effect:

Sentence:

3. Cause: George didn't eat anything all day.

Effect:

Sentence:

4. Cause: Frank was up half the night.

Effect:

Sentence:

5. Cause: The dog got out of the yard.

Effect:

Sentence:

Name: _____

Creative Writing

Friendly Letter

One reason to write a short, friendly note is to thank someone for something that they have done. You can write a thank you note for a gift, a favor, or for anything nice that a person has done or said.

Thank you notes need to:

- Include the date that you are writing
- Have a personalized greeting
- Be specific about what you are thanking the person for; and
- Include your name in the signature

DIRECTIONS: Think about something that someone has given you lately, or something nice that someone has done for you. Use the template below to write them a thank you note.

Date: _____

Dear: _____

Love,
