Independence Day

1 Read about Independence Day in Ukraine. When is it?

I'm Sviatoslav and I live in Kyiv. It's August, the 24th.

Today we celebrate Independence Day. It's a very special day. My parents don't go to work today.

We walk in the main city square. There are a lot of Ukrainian flags everywhere. People sing the Ukrainian anthem and watch a parade.

In the evening, there is a big concert with fireworks. It's a wonderful holiday!
