"A Long Walk to Water" is a book by Linda Sue Park. The book tells the story of Nya, an eleven-year-old girl. Nya lives in South Sudan in Africa. At the beginning of the story, there is no fresh water in Nya's village, so she walks eight hours a day to get water. It's hot and the water's heavy, and Nya can't go to the school in the village because she's always walking to the river for water. One day, some people come and build a well in Nya's village. Nya is very happy. Now her family has water and she can go to school.
