My Brother Martin

Read the questions and choose the best answer:

1. What is the author's MAIN purpose to write the story?

   - To DESCRIBE the life in Atlanta during segregation.
   - To ENTERTAIN readers with the story of three siblings.
   - To INFORM readers of Martin Luther King Jr.'s young life.
   - To PERSUADE readers to treat each other with respect and kindness.

2. What job did the author's father have?

   - Minister
   - Musician
   - Singer
   - Writer

3. What does the author mean when she says that daddy practiced what he preached?

- Daddy had difficulty speaking.
- Daddy memorized his sermons.
- Daddy lived up to the beliefs he taught.
- Daddy gave the sermons to everybody.

4. What happened when daddy went to buy shoes for Martin Luther King Jr.?

- Daddy took a job selling shoes.
- Daddy got into a fight with the store owner.
- Daddy refused to be served at the back of the store.
- Daddy didn't have enough money to buy the shoes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. What does Martin Luther King Jr. mean when he says these words: Mother Dear, one day, I'm going to turn this world upside down.

- He wants to play tricks on people.
- He intends to fight for racial justice.
- He intends to travel around the world.
- He intends to search for something lost.

6. Which word BEST describes how the author feels about Martin Luther King Jr.?

- Angry
- Jealous
- Nervous
- respectful

LIVEWORKSHEETS