

Third Grade
The Fisherman and His Wife

A. Match

- Throne () A small roughly made and often dwelling.
 Wish () A spoken word or group of words believed to have magic power.
 Ceilings () A small house usually in the country or for vacation use.
 Empress () Something wanted.
 Cottage () The overhead inside surface of a room.
 Magic spell () The chair used by a king or queen.
 Fancier () A woman who rules an empire.
 Tiny hut () Not plain or ordinary. Of a high quality or price.

B. Fill in the chart with the correct headings.

Middle – Beginning – Characters – Setting – End

| | | | | |
|------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|--|
| | | | | |
| By the sea | The fisherman His wife The fish | The fisherman caught a big fish. | The fisherman's wife wants to live in a castle. | The fisherman went home to his wife in the tiny hut by the sea. |

C. Complete the sentences by using the given words.

palace – prince – cottage – storm – wish – castle

1. "Please let me go", the fish said. "I'm not a real fish. I'm really a _____ under a magic spell.
2. The fisherman told his wife the story of the talking fish. "Did you make a _____?" She asked.
3. The _____ has a living room, bedroom, and kitchen.
4. The _____ has fine china, golden tables, crystal chandeliers, and carpets.
5. The _____ has soldiers, drums, trumpets, and a throne.
6. During the terrible _____, the wind blew, the lightning flashed, and the thunder crashed.