

1. What is the purpose of the conversation?
 - a. To tell about the Man's project.
 - b. To give explanation about the programming part.
 - c. To offer help to the Man.
 - d. To give information about his project first meeting.
2. Which part is the offering help in the conversation?
 - a. I would love the help!
 - b. Would you like me to help you on your new project?
 - c. Do you like to work alone?
 - d. Could you meet us at that time?
3. What is the woman do in the conversation?
 - a. She asks for help.
 - b. She needs a help.
 - c. She refuses a help.
 - d. She offers a help.
4. How do the man respond to the woman?
 - a. He doesn't need any help.
 - b. He refuses the offer of the help.
 - c. He doesn't want to bother the woman.
 - d. He accepts the offer of the help.
5. What could the woman help the man?
 - a. She would help with the writing portion.
 - b. She would help with the programming portion.
 - c. She would help with the writing and programming portion.
 - d. She would help with the collecting background information.
6. ... you like me to help you on your new project?
 - a. Could
 - b. Would
 - c. May
 - d. Will
7. Man: I would love the help!
What is the correct interrogative sentence for the answer above?
 - a. Would you prefer helping with the writing part or is programming more your thing?
 - b. Do you like to work alone?
 - c. Could you meet with us at that time?
 - d. Would you like me to help you on your new project?
8. Would you like me to help you on your new project?
The underlined word above refer to ...
 - a. The woman
 - b. The man
 - c. The project
 - d. The audience
9. Would you like me to help you on your new project?
 - a. The woman
 - b. The man
 - c. The project
 - d. The audience
10. Would you like me to ... you on your new project?
 - a. Help
 - b. Helps
 - c. Helped
 - d. Helping