Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

In 1937, Disney's cartoon, Snow White and Seven Dwarfs were produced. It was the first full-length movie cartoon ever made. The film remains popular today. Snow White was followed by a number of other cartoon films, including Pinocchio, Fantasia and Bambi. In 1950, Disney's company began to make non-cartoon films of the best novels in the world, such as Treasure Island, for young people. The company became not only one of the main producer of films but also a publisher of books for children.

In 1955, Disney opened a large amusement park called Disneyland in Los Angeles. Very quickly the park became an attractive place for both men and women, young and old. Disney passed away in 1966. He didn't live to see the opening of another Disney amusement park. The new park is called Walt Disney World, opened in Florida in 1971. It is even larger than Disneyland and has become one of the world's most popular holiday places.

In both of the parks, visitors can ride, walk or beat as they like. There are streets looking like those in the USA towards the end of the nineteenth century, where you can see and "feel" the life of Americans in the old days. There are fairly-lands, where you can meet the characters from fairy tales and Disney's cartoons and films, if you want something more exciting, you may experience your own adventures. For example, you can go under the sea in a submarine visit an ancient castle, go with Alice to the wonderland, or even have a ride in a spaceship traveling among the stars. Since its opening, Disney World has been made larger and larger. It is made up of several wonderful and magic parts. Besides, Disney amusement parks have been built in other parts of the world. Tokyo Disneyland, for example, was finished and opened to public in 1983.
