CHAPTER FOUR

Literary Device:

Simile

Above the cricket, towers that seemed like mountains of light rose up into the night sky.

What is being compared in the simile:

Why is this a good comparison?

CHAPTER FOUR

Reality or Fantasy:

After you read each sentence decide whether it describes something that could really happen or whether it is fantasy. Place an [R] before the sentence if it could actually happen, and an [F] if it is fantasy.

- _____ 1. When cats chase mice in the meadow, the mice usually get caught.
