EXERCISE 1 (10 pkt.)

- 1 Read the text. Are the sentences true (T) false (F) or doesn't it say (DS)?

The hottest place in the world is El Azizia in the Sahara desert in Africa. Sometimes the temperature is 66°C. But there are many other places that also get very hot and there are deserts in other parts of Africa, Asia, America and Australia. But deserts are not always hot. At night, deserts are very cold.

Not many animals and plants live in a desert, because it doesn't rain very often, so there is no water. One animal likes the desert – the camel. It has got big feet to walk on the sand. It can live for a long time without water. Sometimes it doesn't drink for weeks. When it finds water it can drink 50 litres.

EXERCISE 2 (10 pkt.)

south north east west Scotland Wales

Holiday weather?

It's the second day of the holidays. Yesterday was wet in the south but sunny in the north. What is the weather for today? Well, it's a different picture in the different regions. In the south it's warm and sunny and it's going to get hotter, so don't forget the suncream. But children in Scotland are probably happy because it's snowing in some places! In the north of England the weather isn't very good. It's colder than yesterday and in some parts it's raining. In the east of England it's very cold and windy. This is because the land is very flat and the wind comes across the sea. The sea is very cold at the moment – so, no swimming! The bridge to Kirby Island is closed this morning because it's very windy. And finally, the west of England and Wales are very wet. There's a lot of water on the roads so be careful!

- 1 Yesterday it was raining in the _____.
- 2 It was dry in the _____.
- 3 Today, it's warm in the _____.

To: Steve
From: Penny

Hi Steve,
Are you back home from your holiday?
As you know, I'm on holiday in Poland with my parents. We planned a camping holiday, but it rained all the time, so after two days at the campsite, we moved to a hotel. Yesterday, we visited Cracow. The first thing that we did was go to the Wawel Castle to see the Crown Jewels. Then, we walked to the beautiful Main Square. After lunch, we went to a fantastic water park and had lots of fun! On the way back, we stopped at a restaurant. My parents had 'pierogi' (small dumplings). I wanted to have a pizza, but they didn't have any, so I had a traditional Polish soup called 'żurek'. It was really delicious!
See you soon,
Penny
