

Test Unit 6: Our heritage

Date: _____

1. Write true or false.

- a) Our alphabet was invented by the Ancient Egyptians. _____
- b) Archaeologists are people who write books about history. _____
- c) Castles and palaces are examples of historical buildings. _____
- d) Paintings give us information about the past. _____

2. Answer the questions.

- a) Where can we see objects from the past? _____
- b) Which period of history doesn't have written sources? _____
- c) Where can we see traditional clothes and dances? _____
- d) What sources of history can we listen to? _____

3. Match the pictures to the periods of history.

Middle Ages

Prehistory

Modern Age

4. Tick the things you can find in a museum.

archaeologist

sculpture

jewellery

palace

tools

skeleton

5. Look at the photos. Then write the names of these pictures to complete the sentences.

- a) Letters can help us find out about important events and people in the past.
- b) _____ can help us know how parents wanted to educate their children and how children's lives were.
- c) _____ help us know what people used in the past.
- d) _____ help us find out where people lived.
- e) _____ are the people who study history and write about it.
- f) By looking at _____ we can find out what people did.
- g) By going to _____ and listening to _____ we can see traditional clothes and dances.

6. Complete the table. Add one more word to each category.

sculpture skeleton letter palace coins grandparents' memories
Written sources	Visual sources	Sources we hear	Objects and buildings

