A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A MUSEUM NIGHT GUARD

Read on to find out about what it's really like to be a real museum night guard ...

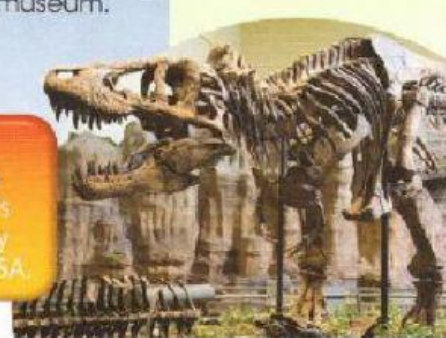

At night	In the morning	In the afternoon	In the evening	At the weekend
Bob starts work at the museum at 10 o'clock at night. He walks around and he watches the security screens. He finishes work at 6 o'clock in the morning.	After work, Bob goes home. He eats and he goes to bed at 8 o'clock in the morning. He sleeps for about five hours.	In the afternoon, Bob goes shopping or to the cinema. He doesn't visit friends or family because they are at work.	Bob goes to bed at 7 o'clock. He sleeps for about two hours. He eats and then it's time to go back to the museum.	Bob likes the weekend. He visits friends and family.

IMAGINE THAT!
Bob works when you sleep and he goes to bed when you get up!

WOW!
There are about 55,000 museums in the world!

LOOK!
This is Sue, a T-Rex dinosaur skeleton. It's in the Natural History Museum in Chicago, USA.
