

Fill in the blanks with the words given.

furthered	passion	London	born
transmitted	invention	inventor	first

John Logie Baird was a Scottish engineer. He was known as the _____ of the television and the first man to show television picture to the public. He was _____ on 13 August 1888 in Helensburgh, Scotland. He _____ his studies at University of Glasgow. He continued his _____ in invention. On 25 March 1925, he presented the _____ television to the public in _____. In October the same year, he _____ the first television image. He continued to improve his _____ and introduced the colour television.