

1. Listen and complete.

Brighton in the rain

to Athens and to Rome,
the Pyramids in picture books at home,
across the sea or been inside a plane,
my holidays in Brighton in the rain.

foreign food or drunk in a foreign bar,
a foreign girl or driven a foreign car,
to find my way in a country I don't know,
just where I am and where I'll never go.

travel books by writers who have been to Pakistan,
people telling stories of adventures in Iran,

documentaries about China and Brazil,
 But myself; it's making me feel ill.
 several languages like Hindi and Malay,
 lots of useful sentences I've never been able to say,
 The furthest place I've ever been was to the Isle of Man
 And that was full of tourists from .

Adapted from a poem George Bernard Shaw

2. Answer the questions with short answers.

- Has he ever visited Egypt?
- Has he ever flown?

3. Right or wrong.

- He has already travelled abroad.

4. Explique ce que chacun d'entre eux a déjà fait (au cours de son existence) et ce qu'ils n'ont jamais fait. Puis pose la question pour savoir s'ils ont déjà eu les expériences symbolisées par le point d'interrogation.
