

Drag and drop

	the most important aim the aim or purpose of a stage, step or short section of a lesson the secondary focus of the lesson, less important than the main aim what the teacher would like to improve in his/her teaching an example of a grammar point, function or lexical set an activity which gives learners more practice of target language or the topic of the lesson or provides extra skills work a form of a verb that ends in -ing and functions as a noun to provide new information about something the language which is the focus of the lesson or a part of the lesson. this describes the language and skills to be covered on a course, and the order in which they will be taught the traditions and culture of the country whose language is being studied an activity in which learners find out information from others by asking questions or using questionnaires in order to practise speaking skills and/or specific language

Survey	Syllabus	Gerund	Exponent	The main aim	A stage aim
Extension task			Target language culture	A personal aim	Input
			Target language	A subsidiary aim	