

Chapter 9

42 – Who is Bonnie ?

- a nice girl met at the gym who wants to communicate with Cece
- a mute girl who can't communicate without using sign language
- an artist/ a clown who came to school for a show

43 – What is Bonnie's reaction when she discovers Cece is deaf ?

- She starts writing things on a slate to communicate with Cece
- She starts using signs because she learnt sign language
- She turns around and walks away because she feels uncomfortable

44 – Does Cece like when people use sign language ?

- No, she compares them to a sad mime artist and she hates the show
- Yes, because it enables her to be understood
- Yes, because it proves that the other people care

45 - How does Cece realise that she might need sign language ?

- She wants to explain something to a policeman but she can't
- Lip reading is sometimes not satisfactory. There's a misunderstanding between Bonnie and her : she thinks Bonnie's grandma makes pies while she might die :-/
- She never realises she might need sign language

46 - What do Cece and her mum learn in Mrs Balnkenship's class?

- They make pastries
- They learn sign language
- They draw

47 - What signs does Cece learn in this group ?

- Alphabet, numbers, colours, animals
- Alphabet, manners, animals, feelings, family
- Alphabet, feelings, food and family

48 - Why does Cece refuse to learn sign language ?

- Because she doesn't want to « look » different
- Because it's too hard
- Because the teacher is not nice

49 - What does « special » mean for Cece's mum ?

- Different but in a positive way, like every kid is special
- Handicaped
- Weird, strange, different from everyone else

50 - When having an ice-cream with her Mom, why did Cece realise she could have tried to learn sign language ?

- Because the waiter used sign language and she couldn't understand him
- Because a deaf couple was arguing next to her, using sign language and they seemed not to care about it
- Because a little girl used sign language and seemed happy about it

51 - At the end of this chapter, what important thing does Cece start to realise ?

- That you shouldn't care about being different : « Be yourself, no matter what they say ! »
- That you should always try to melt and avoid being different

52 - Why don't the neighbour kids play with Cece ?

- Because they aren't comfortable with her deafness so they don't invite her
- Because Cece turns down their invitations, thinking they are forced to do so by their parents
- Because her mother refuses to let her play with them

53 - How does Martha know that Cece is deaf ?

- The neighbour kids told her
- She saw her phonic ear
- She doesn't : she thought the phonic ear were headphones for music

- The day after they met
- A week after they met
- She never got invited

56 - What's Martha's reaction when Cece turned her hearing aids while she was speaking ?

- She's really understanding and she even thinks it's a cool power
- She's really upset/angry and she considers it's rude
- She didn't realise because she's talkative and she kept speaking while Cece was sleeping

57 - How do they seal their friendship ?

- Pinkie swearing
- Sharing a pair of earrings
- Sharing some blood

58 - In her imagination, who does Martha become ?

- The True Friend, dressed like Robin in Batman
- The Joker, the mean adversary
- Wonderwoman, the good adversary

Chapter 11

59 - What's special about the new family moving in ?

- They are all deaf and can use sign language
- They are all rude and mean and they have no friends
- They are all beautiful and look like movie stars

60 - Why does Cece spy on Mike, her neighbor ?

- She's in love
- She thinks he's an alien
- He has a huge secret : he's a Russian spy

61 - How did Cece and Martha manage to get closer to Mike ?

- Martha got them invited to use his trampoline
- Mike invited her to his birthday party
- Cece invited him to use her swimming-pool

62 - In her imagination, what object can attract Mike and make him fall in love ?

- The all-powerful hearing aids
- Her swimming-pool
- The all-powerful rosette, the little flower attached to her tank top
