

A. Match each animal to its corresponding characteristic.

1. Red frogs () When they go hunting together, their bodies change color and flash.
2. Bees () Their bright colors say "Keep away! I'm deadly".
3. Fireflies () They send their message with perfume.
4. Ants () Their "talk" uses patterns of squawks, clicks, and squeaks.
5. Elephants () They communicate at night by lighting up.
6. Chameleons () They dance to tell other members where the food is.
7. Sailfish () Their bright colors say "Let's fight" and pale colors say "You win".
8. Dolphins () They tap or feel each other with their antennae to pass on information.
9. Blue whales () They make very deep, low rumbles that other members can pick up with their huge ears.
10. Female luna moths () They "sing" their messages to each other in the sea.

B. Complete the sentences by using the given words.

hand – spikes – skin – feathers – jet – antennae

1. Male lyrebirds put on a dance to show with their tail _____ to attract a female partner.
2. Male luna moths have super _____ to smell a female moth almost 6 miles away.
3. The blue whale is the biggest whale. Its voice is even louder than a _____ engine.
4. Dolphins can learn human commands and _____ signals.
5. Chameleons change their _____ color to blend with their surrounding.
6. Sailfish are super-fast fish with very long _____.