CELTS AND IBERIANS

They settled in the North West and centre of the Iberian Peninsula. _____

They settled in the East and South East of the Iberian Peninsula in the Bronze Age.

_____

They lived in fortified settlements on hills. _____

They were farmers, metalworkers and warriors. _____

They built rectangular buildings made of stones. _____

They built round buildings made of stone and straw. _____

They were farmers, craftsmen and traders. _____

They lived in fortified villages calledcastros. They were built on hills to prevent surprise attacks. _____

They used their money for trading. _____

They also developed their own writing. _____

They traded goods with other cultures. _____