

WAS / WERE

a. Read about Andy's weekend:

This is my friend Andy. He ✓ very busy last weekend. On Saturday morning he ✓ at the park. He ✓ at a picnic with his brothers, because it ✓ sunny and hot. They played football, too. They love football!

On Saturday night Andy and his cousin ✓ at a wedding. His brothers ✗ there. They ✓ at the cinema with mum and dad.

On Sunday morning Andy ✗ at home. He ✓ at a football match with some friends. At lunchtime he ✓ at barbecue with his family.

On Sunday afternoon he studied for the Monday test. His sister studied, too. They ✓ at home in the living room.

On Monday morning he ✓ at school and he ✓ tired! But he was very happy! His weekend was great!

b. Write TRUE or FALSE.

1. Andy was at home last weekend.
2. It was sunny and hot on Saturday morning.
3. Andy's brothers were at the picnic on Saturday night.
4. Mum and Dad were at a football match on Saturday.
5. Andy was tired on Monday morning.
6. Andy and his sister were at home on Sunday afternoon.

c. Answer about Andy's weekend.

1. Was he at a wedding on Monday?
2. Were mum and dad at home on Saturday night?
3. Was Andy at home on Sunday afternoon?
4. Was he tired on Monday morning?
5. Were his brothers at the park on Saturday morning?

d. Write the correct answer.

1. Where was Andy on Saturday morning?
2. Where was his sister on Sunday afternoon?
3. Where were mum and dad on Saturday night?
4. When was Andy at school?
5. When were Andy and his friends at a football match?

