

GRAMMAR EBAU

1. Rewrite this sentence in the negative-interrogative form of the present perfect tense:
She can speak better English than the President
2. Rewrite in indirect style beginning with “he said”
The Paris Agreement put great penalties on us and took away a lot of our asses values
3. Rewrite in the 3rd conditional: If you ask people about the topic, most of them will probably reply the same thing
4. Rewrite in the passive voice, Do not omit any part: The company 3M originally sold a mineral called “corandum” to manufacturers
5. Rewrite in the negative-interrogative form of the simple future tense: Reebok got his name from the South African word “Rhebok”
6. Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as: This tradition changed as it came into contact with others later
“Coming into contact .....
7. Rewrite in indirect style beginning with “he exclaimed”: My friends and I wore red hats last year and nobody threw oranges at us!
8. Rewrite in the active voice: Stamp collection has often been called “the hobby of kings” by philatelists.
9. Rewrite in reported speech: “Do you think zoo animals are really happy?”
Nick asked his wife .....
10. Give a question for the underlined words: Cecilia is very creative