

Manuel Belgrano

- This is Manuel Belgrano's biography. Look at the pictures and write or drag the correct description.

Manuel Belgrano
Creator of the National Flag;
patriotic symbol that distinguish us from other countries of the world.

Belgrano stars the May week and becomes vocal of the first government board.

When he's 16 he goes to Spain. There he studies philosophy and laws. He becomes a lawyer in 1793, he specializes in political economy.

In 1812 he proposes to the government the adoption of a national cockade so Argentinian soldiers distinguish themselves from Spanish soldiers. On February 27 Belgrano raises the National Flag for the first time.

In 1819 Manuel Belgrano resigns from office because of health problems. He dies on June 20 in 1820 in Buenos Aires.

Back in Bs. As. Belgrano becomes secretary of the consulate. He founds the first school of drawing, the nautical school, and develops the agriculture and commerce.

In 1806 Belgrano defends his lands during the English Invasions.

Manuel José Joaquín del Corazón de Jesús Belgrano, born in Buenos Aires on June 3 in 1770.

Between 1810 and 1813 Belgrano makes the expedition to Paraguay, to La Banda Oriental and to Alto Perú.

On July 25 in 1816 the Congress declares the flag as a National Symbol to be used in the armies, ships and fortresses.

In 1816 he works in the "Congreso de Tucumán" for the Declaration of Independence.

In 1810 he founds and directs the newspaper "Correo de Comercio". The newspaper awakens libertarian ideas of the people.

In 1782, Belgrano enters to "San Carlos de Buenos. Aires." school where he is considered one of the best students of the class.