

The sentences below are about Ashley's travel blog. Choose the correct relative pronoun.

1. Ashley is the girl which/ who wrote the blog about Seoul.
2. 2013 was the year when/ where she visited South Korea.
3. She was surprised at some of the things which/where she saw there.
4. She spoke to teenagers which/ whose idols are computer gaming champions.
5. She went to an internet café where/ whose computer games were being played.

Choose the correct relative pronoun.

According to research, posts from Facebook, 1. which/where people express their thoughts, are much easier to remember than the formal writing 2. who/that is used in books. This is because humans, 3. that/ who are social creatures, are programmed to learn from other humans. In prehistoric times, 4. when/which there was no writing, we had to pay close attention to other people. 5. who/whose ideas and information could help us survive. The informal style of writing 6. where/which we find on Facebook is similar to these spoken ideas. No wonder it's so hard to remember the information 7. that/who we read in our schoolbooks.

Complete the sentences with the correct relative pronoun and add commas whenever necessary.

1. I was at the World Cyber Games in 2012 _____ they were held in China.
2. The computer _____ is on the first floor doesn't have enough memory.
3. Marsha _____ is a computer programmer does most of her work from home.
4. I spoke to John _____ mother is in hospital.
5. Robert lives in Cambridge _____ he studies.
6. The man _____ lives next door is an actor.

Choose the correct relative pronouns. Then complete the sentences with the words below, put the answer on the separate list below.

1st January | the Olympics | Sir Isaac Newton | Independence Day | the first day of summer | Google | Vincent Van Gogh | X-rays

1. Google Doodles are changes that/who/where _____ makes to its logo on special days.
2. There is always a festive Doodle on _____, the day where/ whose/when people celebrate the New Year.
3. Some Doodles are designed for people whose/ who/which have contributed to science, such as _____.
4. _____, that/who/whose colourful paintings are loved all over the world, got a Doodle on his birthday.
5. Any country where/that/when _____ is being celebrated gets its own Doodle.
6. There are Doodles where/when/which mark important world events, such as _____.
7. Doodles show days which/who/when important things such as _____ were invented.
8. One Doodle, which/where/who has towels, a beach bag and a snorkel, marks _____.

Words

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

Complete the passage with suitable relative pronouns. Then listen and check your answers. There may be more than one possible answer.

Apes and Apps

At Miami's Jungle Island, a trainer shows an orangutan several pictures on an iPad. "Where's the coconut?" he asks. The animal points to the correct picture, ¹..... is on the top left part of the screen. Jungle Island is one of several zoos ²..... tablets are being used with orangutans. These apes are highly intelligent animals ³..... minds must be kept active. The tablets can help give them the stimulation ⁴..... they need, so that they won't become bored and depressed. Linda Jacobs, ⁵..... runs the programme, also hopes to use iPads to help the public and the apes communicate. The plan is to set up a large screen in the orangutan area, ⁶..... the apes can use it, and another outside for zoo visitors. The visitors will ask questions and the apes will respond. Jacobs hopes that in the future, ⁷..... these screens are in use, visitors will really appreciate how amazing these animals are.

