

THE TWINS' ROUTINE

Sarah and Philip _____ (be) brother and sister, twins.
They usually _____ (get up) at 7 o'clock, they _____ (get) dressed and _____ (have) breakfast. They usually drink milk with cookies, but today, they _____ (eat) pancakes. After breakfast, Sarah and Philip _____ (brush) their teeth. Philip _____ (get) his ball to take to school while Sarah _____ (comb) her hair. Their father _____ (be) Jason and he always _____ (take) the twins to school. Today, Jason isn't going to take them to school, they _____ (go) by bus.

Sarah and Philip _____ (have) lunch in the school canteen. They _____ (finish) their classes at 4 o'clock and _____ (go) home by bus. They usually _____ (do) their homework in the afternoon. Today, they _____ (visit) their grandparents, so they _____ (not-do) their homework in the afternoon.

Philip _____ (love) football. He usually _____ (play) it three times a week. Sarah _____ (love) reading, she _____ (spend) all the afternoon reading. The twins _____ (help) their parents with the household chores. They usually _____ (set) the table for dinner, _____ (feed) their dogs, _____ (vacuum) their rooms and _____ (water the plants). All the household chores are very well organized. Today, Sarah _____ (feed) the dogs and Philip _____ (set) the table.

The family _____ (have) dinner at 8 o'clock. After dinner, Sarah usually _____ (help) her mother with the dishes, Philip _____ (watch) TV and their father _____ (read) the newspaper. Today, Jason _____ (tidy) the kitchen while Sarah _____ (watch) TV.

The twins usually _____ (go) to sleep at 9.30.