

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 4 Peer Pressure (Although)

Task 1: Join the sentences using although or even though. Retype the correct sentence in the column given.

a. He told her to tell a lie. She told the truth.

Although he told her to tell a lie, she told the truth.

b. The children make fun of her. She does not get upset.

c. I am very tired. I cannot sleep.

d. Haziq went to school. He was afraid of the bullies.

e. Nadia did not cry. She was very frightened.

f. He told his parents. His friends told him not to tell anyone.

Task 2: Match the sentences correctly.

- | |
|---|
| a. Although she wanted to join her friends, |
| b. Although it was raining, |
| c. She was not angry with them, |
| d. Although Jia Ming was still ill, |
| e. Although Alex was very hungry, |

- | |
|-------------------------------------|
| she did not use her umbrella. |
| he went to school. |
| Mina did not skip class. |
| he did not finish his food. |
| although the boys called her names. |

Task 3: Complete the sentences. Make new sentence at "e" using although/even though.

- a. Even though he is rich, _____.
- b. Although the number of Covid-19 cases is decreasing, _____
_____.
- c. _____, although I feel tired.
- d. _____ even though I had my lunch just now.
- e. _____.