

1) Click on the correct option.

- 1 Where do the fisherman and his wife live?
a next to a lake
b in a busy village
c near the ocean
d on a highway
- 2 How many wishes does the fish grant for the fisherman and his wife?
a one
b three c two d four
- 3 What is Lily's goal?
a to be on TV
b to live in a big house
c to be the star of a show
d to do a funny dance
- 4 What does Lily's mom tell her when she doesn't achieve her goal?
a She will be the star of the next show.
b She should give up on her goal.
c She will be the best dancing alien.
d She should ask for a bigger part.

2) Drag and drop the words on the corresponding space to complete the sentences

audience commercial greedy rehearsal wish

The director was filming a TV (1) to advertise potato chips. He had a (2) with the actors first, to practice: A (3) man was eating potato chips, and he wanted more and more. A genie appeared and granted his (4) for mountains of potato chips. There was no (5) watching the actors, so no one was there to clap at the end.

3 Answer the questions.

- 1 What makes the fisherman's wife happy?
-
- 2 Do you think Lily is still jealous of Rose Bates at the end of the story? Why or why not?
-
-

4) Write the number of the sentence that corresponds to the picture on the little square.

1 When he got to the lake, the water looked dark and strange.

2 One sunny day, he threw his net out onto the water and caught a spectacular gold and silver fish.

3 A storm was battering the lake, and the dark waves were enormous.

4 The fisherman returned to the lake, where the wind was blowing and dark waves rolled towards him.

5) Click on the correct option

The mood of "The Fisherman's Wife" gets more peaceful / threatening / exciting because the fish feels angrier / happier / more helpful as the story continues.

6) Choose F if the sentence describes the theme of The Fisherman's wife, S if it describes the story of Spacegirl Selina or B if it describes the theme in both. There's one for each.

- a Be grateful for the things and opportunities you have.
- b Don't ask for something too often, or you'll lose it.
- c Be patient, and you'll be able to meet your goals.