

Direction: Write the correct word to complete each sentences. Choose your answer inside the box.

Lizards	invertebrates	warm-blooded	Fish	reptiles
Snakes	mammary gland	cold-blooded	amphibians	Birds

1. A group of animals lacking of backbones or vertebral column is called _____.
2. Fishes, amphibians and reptiles are _____ animals.
3. Mammals and Birds are _____ animals.
4. _____ have gills to breathe and fins to move.
5. A group of animals that lives in and out of water are called _____.
6. _____ covered with tough, dry skin, and protective scales.
7. _____ have a hard beak to get food and to defend themselves and feathers to cover their body.
8. Mammals have _____ that makes milk.
9. -10. Crocodiles, _____, turtle, and _____ are the four main groups of reptiles.