

Milo and Mary are friends.
They sit at lunch together.
Each day, they share their snacks.
One day, Mary asks Sam to sit with them.
At lunch, Mary talks to Sam.
At lunch, Mary and Sam laugh.
Milo doesn't laugh, and he feels sad.
Milo likes sharing with Mary.
Now she is sharing with Sam.
After that, Mary smiles at Milo.
After that, Sam smiles at Milo.
Sam asks Milo if he wants his snack.
After that, Milo smiles at him.
"Yes, please!" Milo says. Milo shares his snack too.
He and Sam are friends too!

An illustration of three children sitting at a table. On the left, a boy with blonde hair (Milo) is smiling. In the middle, a boy with red hair (Sam) is smiling. On the right, a girl with blonde hair (Mary) is smiling. They are all sitting at a brown table with various food items like apples, bananas, and a bowl. There are also some drinks on the table. The background is a solid light blue color.

1. Put the words in order to make each sentence. 2. Answer each question to complete the sentences.

sit / They / lunch / together / at
_____.

his / snack / Milo / too / shares
_____.

share / their / Each / they / day / snacks
_____.

When do Mary and Milo sit together?

They sit together at _____.

What is Mary's new friend's name?

Her new friend is _____.

What does Sam share with Milo?

He shares his _____.