

Let's practice some expressions!

Name _____

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| a. It's not rocket science.... | () I warned you that this would happen. |
| b. To spill the beans... | () each one pays their own bill |
| c. To be off the hook.... | () Used when someone makes a mistake that they shouldn't have made. |
| d. Break a leg... | () no longer in difficulty or trouble. |
| e. Let the cat out of the bag... | () no special conditions, restrictions, obligations, or arrangements that must be met. |
| f. It's all downhill from here.... | () is used to say that you do not think something is very difficult to do or understand. |
| g. Go Dutch... | () the hard work's over |
| h. On the dot... | () To be forgotten, especially of an obligation. (forget) |
| i. Slip one's mind... | () An expression of condemnation, often an angry or disappointed one. |
| j. Once in a blue moon.... | () An impossible, unlikely, or fanciful idea or plan. |
| k. Shame on you... | () reveal secret information unintentionally or indiscreetly. |
| l. Pie in the sky.... | () exactly at the stated or expected time |
| m. No strings attached.... | () to let a secret out in the open. |
| n. You know better than that... | () good luck! |
| o. Told you so... | () very rarely. |