

1. Drag and drop the name of the services to the pictures.

Home repairs

Computer repair and data recovery

Auto repair

Laundry and dry cleaning

Language tutoring

Security systems
repair

Carpet
cleaning

Car wash

2. Discuss the following questions.

- Why would someone need these services?
- Have you ever used any of them?
- How do you choose a company or person to do any of them?
- What services are you using these days?

3. Listen to the ad and check the services it offers.

Music lessons

Laundry and dry cleaning

Home cleaning

Hair cuts

Language tutoring

Repairs

Meal preparation

Pet food

4. Listen again or read the ad and fill in the blanks with the missing words (get or have)

a) You can  your apartment cleaned and your things organized.

b) You can  your walls painted and your leaking sink fixed.

c) Do you want to  your car washed?

d) You can  it all done at affordable prices.

5. Match the tips to the situations.

A- I want to check my blood pressure, where can I go to do it?

B-

A- I'm too busy to clean my house, is there a company available to do that?

B-

A- I need to wash my car, but I don't have the equipment; what should I do?

B-

A- Oh no! All my suits are dirty and I have a meeting next week. What can I do to have them cleaned?

B-

A- I took my car to the repair shop, but it's still not working.

B-

You can have your blood pressure checked at a pharmacy.

Where did you get it repaired?

You can get your house cleaned by "LEAVE IT TO ME"

Why don't you have it washed at a car wash?

You should have them dry cleaned by "LEAVE IT TO ME"