Hi Lana,

I love my new apartment.

It is in a great neighborhood. My children's school is across the street. They like the school a lot. There is a community center down the street. My husband works at the grocery store next to our apartment. He can walk to work. There is also a great Chinese restaurant on 3rd street across from the grocery store.

My new place is in the best location, but I miss you a lot.

Your friend,
Angela
