

Chapter 12 - 'We can't stop now'

Turn into past

- James Reeb is dead. ✓ _____
- Dr King phone the President. ✓ _____
- The President is angry at Dr King. ✓ _____
- The President has to talk to Mr Reeb's wife. ✓ _____
- Dr King is pleased that the President calls Reeb's wife, and angry because he doesn't speak Jimmie's family. ✓ _____
- The President says King is sending people to die. ✓ _____
- King can't wait for the President to change the law. ✓ _____
- The American black are going to protest until President changes the law. ✓ _____
- ✓ _____
People will remember the President as someone who says 'wait' and 'I can't'.
- Dr King wants to speak to someone else. ✓ _____
- Dr King invites John Lewis to speak. ✓ _____
- Dr Kings says another march is too dangerous. ✓ _____
- John is part of the bus protest in Montgomery. ✓ _____
- After the protest John can't walk but wants to go to the church. ✓ _____
- Dr King is strong again. ✓ _____

Chapter 13 - A choice

Turn into past

1. A month / week later Dr King and his team were in Montgomery Courthouse.
2. They didn't want / wanted to break the law in a new march.
3. Dr King wanted / didn't want more beatings.
4. Judge Johnson was a white man from the North / South
5. Judge Johnson believed / didn't believe in equal rights.
6. The Judge listened to:

Dr King	George Wallace	Amelia Boynton	Annie Lee	James Reeb
Cager Lee	Sheriff	FBI	The President	Roy Reed
7. Thousand of people in Selma / Montgomery wanted to march.
8. Judge Johnson allowed / didn't allow people to protest.
9. The march would be a five / fifteen days march.
10. Governor Wallace was / wasn't happy.
11. Wallace went / phoned to the President's.
12. The President decided to help Dr King / George Wallace.