Everyone loves a wedding, but people celebrate weddings in a thousand different ways. Here are some of the most interesting customs.

Before the wedding: In the Philippines, the bride and her assistants must all wear the same dresses to stop bad spirits from finding the bride and carrying her away.

At the wedding: A groom in Spain gives his bride her wedding ring and then a little money in order to show that he will work hard for everything they need.

At the wedding party: In Scotland, people only eat half of the cake at the wedding. They keep the other to eat when the first child arrives.

After the wedding: In Palestine, the bride sticks some bread dough to the front door of her new home to show that she and her husband will stay together all their lives.

Round the world, wedding customs are very different, but they are all for the same purpose: to put a man and a woman on the road to a happy future together as husband and wife.
