

On Screen C2

Unit 5b-Phrasal verbs

Name:.....

1. Fill in the gaps with the correct word.

On the run stand a trial criminal record repeat offender verdict bury your head in the sand take the law into her own hands extenuating circumstances

- A. They fired him when they found out he had a
- B. The court reached a unanimousof not guilty.
- C. Two of the main suspects are tonext month for their part in the bombing.
- D. She was found partly guilty of theft, but due to hershe was not sent into prison.
- E. You have got to face the consequences at some point-you can't just
- F. She is aand has been arrested five times this year for shoplifting.
- G. One day, after years of violent misbehaviour from her partner, she decided to
- H. People, nowadays, are alwaysand never have time to just chat with a friend or stranger.

2. Match the word with its definition.

- A. Lay down the law
- B. Suspended sentence
- C. Throw the book at the defendant
- D. To face the charges
- E. Live and let live
- F. Violent outburst

- 1.being receptive and open to new ideas/opinions
2. when someone serves a smaller amount of time than what he was initially sentenced with
- 3.an expressive outbreak of emotions due to anger, fear, disappointment
4. to establish the ground rules
5. to punish someone in an extremely harsh manner
6. to be accused of committing a crime