

Defining relative clause WHO

Rewrite the following statements. Include the information in parenthesis and the defining relative clause who.

1. She worked for a man (the man used to be a teacher)

2. They called a friend (the friend lived nearby)

3. My brother has three children (my brother lives in Mexico)

4. Vivian went to the gym to exercise (the gym is by her house)

5. The boy was dancing by himself (the boy had a red shirt)

6. Maria was my neighbor (she was friendly)

7. The children are in the garden (they are students of Mrs Sally)

Defining relative clause THAT

Rewrite the following statements. Include the information in parenthesis and the defining relative clause that.

1. I love stories (stories with a happy ending)

2. My cell phone is pink (my mom gave it to me)

3. My shoes are comfortable (I got them at Amazon)

4. Paul broke the computer (it belonged to my father)

5. The table is so dirty (I use it to do my homework)

6. My backpack is too big (I got it at the new store)

7. Her ring is so pretty (her grandmother gave it to her)

