

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE

(BY JANE AUSTE)

Read chapters 3 and 4 and then do the following activities:

1) Who said it, to whom and in which situation? Fill in the spaces using the correct character 's names. Remember to write Mr or Mrs if you are writing a surname

a. 'It is not Mr Bingley. It's a person whom I have never seen before.'

_____ said it to _____, talking about Mr. _____

b. 'I would like to say that I have come prepared to admire the young ladies. And perhaps when we know each other better-'

_____ said it to _____, talking about Mr. Bennet 's _____

c. 'Although she is such a great lady, she has never treated me with disdain. '

_____ said it, talking about _____

d. ' The fact is, he hates me. I think he was jealous of his father's affection for me. '

_____ said it to _____, talking about _____

2) Read the sentences and write TRUE OR FALSE

- a. Mr Collins is Mr Bennet 's uncle.
- b. Mr Collins will inherit all property when Mr Bennet dies.
- c. Mr Collins has become a doctor.
- d. Mr Collins will visit Bennet family and stay there a few days.
- e. Mr Collins is thirty years old.
- f. The Bennet family can afford a cook.
- g. Mr Collins loves reading novels.
- h. Darcy and Mr Wickham used to be friends.
- i. After Darcy 's father had died, Mr Wickham became rector of Pemberley.

3) Read the sentences and complete them using only one word.

- a. Mr Collins first choice of future wife was _____, but as he had no other option, he changed to _____
- b. One morning, _____ suggested walking to Meryton to see the officers. They met there a handsome man called Mr _____ who came from _____ .
- c. Mr Collins asked _____ to dance with him for the first two dances in the party.
- d. Mr Darcy invited _____ to dance and they danced in silence almost all the time.