

DESCRIBING PAST ACTIONS

Simple Past

Subject	Afirmative	Negative	Spelling rules for regular verbs
I You He She It We You They	VERB IN PAST Regular verb ED	DIDN'T + VERB	Consonant = ED WORK = WORKED VOWEL E = D LIVE = LIVED Consonant + Y = IED STUDY = STUDIED

Some people are talking about their past activities. Read the sentences and complete with the correct conjugation.

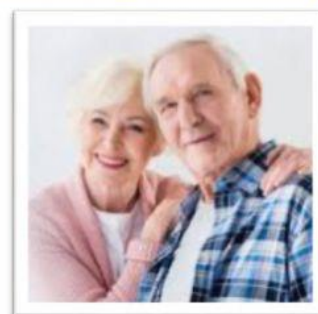

Hi, my name is Richard. Last year I _____ (live) in England. I _____ (work) as a chef in an international restaurant. There, I _____ (make) delicious dishes for people from all over the world, but I _____ (not talk) with clients very often because I was in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitty are from London, but in the 80's they _____ (not live) there.

In 1987, Mr. Kitty _____ (give) English classes in a college in Mexico. His classes were very interesting, so a lot of students _____ (take) lessons with him at that time.

In 1995, Mrs. Kitty _____ (open) a boutique, because she _____ (be) a fashion designer. A lot of people _____ (visit) her store and they _____ (buy) her clothes.

My friend Tomas doesn't like going shopping, but yesterday he and his family _____ (go) shopping to a new mall. It was horrible, because her sisters _____ (not decide) fast and they _____ (walk) a lot to look clothes and accessories. Fortunately, He _____ (eat) pizza and he _____ (play) videogames.