

FEW- A FEW

LITTLE - A LITTLE

FEW: not many, not enough, nearly no
Plural countable nouns
(yeterli miktarda değil)
(sayılabilir çoğul isimler)
e.g.: Angela has got few apples to share with her friends

A FEW: some, a small amount
Plural countable nouns
(biraz, küçük bir miktar)
(sayılabilir çoğul isimler)
e.g.: We have a few apples, so you can share it with your siblings.

LITTLE: not much, almost nothing
Uncountable nouns
(çok değil, neredeyse hiç yok)
(sayılamayan isimler)
e.g.: The baby has little milk. Can you go and buy some?

A LITTLE: some, a small amount
Uncountable nouns
(biraz, az miktarda)
(sayılamayan isimler)
e.g.: We have a little milk, it is enough to bake a cake.

Fill in the blanks using “few”, “a few”, “little”, “a little”.

- I am afraid. I can't come to the cinema with you tonight. I havemoney. So, I am broke.
- She has friends as she can't get along with many of them.
- Have you seen Mrs. Johnson? I havequestions to ask her.
- Obviously men have.....interest in doing house chores. They don't care about it.
- At last, I succeeded to put aside money in case I need it in an emergency.
- The professor claimed that investigations have been made about the New Covid 19 vaccine, so it won't be possible to transfer them into practice before 2021.
- Onlypeople get together in the conference to take down the effects of global warming.
- From the earlier times, Samsat was ofsignificance except to the people who lived there.
- I'm sorry but I have time. I won't be able to accompany with you for dinner. So, I have to leave now.
- Among the questions asked in the interview, onlyof them were answered correctly (nearly %5).
- A: Would you like sugar in your coffee?
B: Yes, I can take please. I can't drink without sugar
- Although Mary has just moved to the town, she has already.....friends.
- In many part of the Africa, people can reach clean water to survive.
- All I want is peace and quiet. Could you back off, please?
- Remote education will be more common and favored within the nextyears due to the several reasons.

VOCABULARY

to be broke : having no money

/brəʊk/

put sth aside: to save sth

/put ə'saɪd /

to get along with sb. be friends

/get ə'lonj/

accompany: to get together

/ə'kəmpəni/

back off: leave sb. alone

/bæk ɒf/

take down: to reduce, lessen, diminish

/teɪk daʊn /

