INSEPARABLE PHRASAL VERBS WITH GET

A Rewrite the underlined parts of the sentences using an expression in the box.

get along with	get away with	get over	get through to get around to	✓get out of	get through	look forward to get out of them

1. I find work parties boring. I usually try to avoid them.
2. It takes me ages to find time to return friends' calls. I'm surprised I have any friends.
3. If a friend tells me a lie, I never stop being upset by it. I never trust that person again.
4. I'm not good at buying gifts for people, so I usually try to avoid criticism and buy gift cards.
5. It annoys me when friends can't make it to the end of dinner without looking at their phones.
6. My dad wants a big party for my twenty-first birthday. I hate parties, but he won't listen, and I can't make him understand.
7. My friends are all pretty easygoing. I have a great relationship with them all.
8. I like to spend Friday evenings all by myself. I can't wait for them.

Note

Other inseparable phrasal verbs + prepositions are: get along with, look forward to, get through to (= make someone understand)