

Excuses, excuses ...

For years my husband, Tom, and I had complained bitterly about the lack of sidewalks in our village. We didn't have enough exercise but we NOT/CAN jog because there were no sidewalks. Tom had often told I, «If only we had sidewalks, we would jog or walk daily and become models of fitness». So we were thrilled when a community sidewalk project was announced, and watched eagerly as paving neared completion. Then the BAD thing happened: wishful thinking and reality collided. «Well, dear,» Tom said. «What'll we use as an excuse for not walking now?» I said I THINK of some excuse.
