We were all once children

When I young, my life was,

When I was only two,

The was always in the,

And the sky was always blue.

When I was young, my life easy,

When I was only nine

We happy every day,

The weather was always fine.

We were all once,

We were all once two years old,

For all of us, there times,

When the was never cold.

When I was young, my life was easy,

When I was just thirteen

Our housesmall,

The walls were white,

And the was always green.

We were all once.....

We were all once two years old,

For all of us, there times,

When the wind was never cold ...was never cold.
