TOPIC	Verbs Causatives	LEVEL	English 4	UNIT	7	SKILL	Grammar
Teachers	Marcela Amaya		Alejandra Gonzales			Yurley Suárez

GRAMMAR

1. Complete the text with the correct form of the verb in parentheses. Use the correct form of have as the main verb where necessary

Ellen looked great at the party. She was wearing a gorgeous yellow dress. She (make/it) _____ by a famous fashion designer, and it looked perfect on her but she would have looked better if she had worn some earrings. I wonder when she's going to (pierced/her ears) _____.

She (cut/her hair) _____ by Jean Jacques at the salon. He (trim/it) _____ about an inch. And she (do/her nails) _____ there. They were bright red! Her hair was red, too. The problem is, she (dye/it) _____herself. Personally. I think she should have had jean Jacques do it. Luckily. Jean Jacques (do/her hair) _____very nicely. So, despite the badly-dyed red hair, she was definitely one of the most glamorous people that night.

2. En the structure have / get + object + past participle, have and give function as main verbs, select the correct option.

- I _____ my car washed.

- You _____ your hair cut.

- He _____ his house painted.

- She _____ her computer fixed.

3. Drag each sentence into the correct category.

Active Sentences	Causative Sentences

Sentences:

- She got her hair permed last week
- I cut my hair last week.
- Did you have your hair dyed?
- Elizabeth had her nails done.
- I'm going to shave my head.
- I'm going to dye my hair.
- I'm going to have my head shaved.
- Elizabeth does her nails.
- Did you get your hair cut?
- She permed her hair.
- He had his mustache trimmed
- Why did he trim his mustache?